This is a brief note on behalf of the IMDb team to thank you for your data contributions in 2009. We've just posted a list of the top 200 contributors along with other IMDb statistics for last year at:

<http://www.imdb.com/board/bd0000042/thread/154468698>

You did submit over 250 items which were approved by the data management team in 2009. We wanted to say thanks and encourage you to continue contributing in 2010.

Please note that I am unable to assist with specific questions on contributing to IMDb, however, such questions can be posted to the Contributors Help board at:

<http://www.imdb.com/board/bd0000042/threads/>

Best wishes from IMDb for 2010!

Col Needham,
IMDb founder and CEO
on behalf of the whole IMDb Team
